

FAMILY CONNECTION

Use the following thoughts and questions to have a spiritual conversation as a family. Don't emphasize having the right answer, but focus on spending time discussing the Word as a family.

SCRIPTURE | Genesis 2:8-9,15-17; 3:1-7

SESSION SUMMARY

---

In this week's session, we'll take a peek at the garden of Eden and what it was like before sin entered. We'll see all the good things God created for humans to enjoy and tend—and we'll see the one thing He warned them away from and what happened when they didn't listen. We will learn that we can trust God's boundaries are good. Here are the main points:

- God's boundaries are good.
- Believing God's Word helps us avoid sin.

CONVERSATION QUESTIONS

- Why are boundaries so important? How can our family respect God's boundaries? What steps can we take to set healthy boundaries with our time, relationships, and resources?
- How have you seen the enemy distort God's Word today? What are some ways our family can share the truth with those who believe the enemy's lies?
- We all experience doubt sometimes. How can our family members support one another when we doubt what God says is true?

FAMILY CHALLENGE

For this game, get into pairs or play one-on-one. Tape off two squares, one per team or person, just large enough for the people to stand in with a few inches of space between each other and between them and the boundaries. Inflate a balloon. Explain that you have to keep the balloon up in the air as long as possible without stepping outside your box. Whoever lets the balloon drop or steps outside of their boundary first loses. Just like the boundaries were a vital part of winning this game, they are a vital part of living healthy, godly lives too.
